Dear Parents,

Blandford Forum Town Council has invited our children to watch the final 'ride through' Blandford town centre, of the White Helmets (The Royal Signals Motorbike Display Team) on Wednesday 27th September, from 10.30am until 11.10am approximately.

Unfortunately it is not feasible for us to organise this as a whole school visit, however, I write to ask that if any parents would like to take their children to the 'ride through', they would be welcome to collect them at 10am and return their child/children at 12 noon. This would be an authorised absence.

The Royal Signals, as you are no doubt aware, are based at Blandford Camp, and the White Helmets have for as many years as I can remember performed at many local and international events.

This occasion will be marked with some sadness I am sure, for those who say a fond farewell to the team. However, I hope the occasion itself will be one of celebration. There will be attendance by Mayors and Chairmen of civic authorities from across Dorset, along with the Lord Lieutenant of Dorset and High Sheriff of Dorset, in addition to civic guests and military representatives.

The Town Council will reserve an area for the children to watch, all we require is advance notice of your intention to take your child to the event between 10am and 12 noon.

Please contact the School Office if you would like to take part in this memorable occasion by Monday 18th September 2017.

Thank you

Yours

Mrs F Waller
